RUTGERS
THE STATE UNIVERSITY
OF NEW JERSEY

Dear Graduate:

It hardly seems possible that yet another year has passed and I am again writing a letter to the graduating class for publication in the Yearbook. But it is indeed that time for me — and what a year we have had!

This year we realized after so many years of trying, the approval by the Board of Governors of a student center for Livingston College. Not just another renovation of a room or two in Tillett, and not an add-on to Tillett, but a separate building designed and planned to be a student center — our own student center. Unfortunately, the class of 1983 will not get to use it but it will be here for you to come home to and to enjoy. I would like to see all of you at a gala to celebrate our opening.

Another good happening was Livingston's "coming of age," as we were literally swamped with applicants and our dorms were over-crowded. Look out Towers, we're coming back.

A change with mixed blessings has been the accomplishment of physical reorganization. Gone are a Livingston College faculty and Livingston departments although old friends remain active in affairs here. As I write this letter, there are many problems to tackle and many traffic jams to delay us while Route 18 is expanded and extended. But the departments and programs based at Livingston College are good ones and all are important to our mission.

So, okay, there have been changes. But the Livingston spirit has survived and thrives. As long as we admit to the College only those applicants we wish to enroll, as long as we set graduation requirements, run the commuter and residence life programs, operate the gym and the College Center, we can still be who we wish to be.

My message to you then, if I must have one, is good-bye and good luck. I ask that you remember Livingston College and what we stand for. We're a great place and growing better every year. We care about each other and what happens in society. Our College is unique and it has made each of us who is part of it, whether student, faculty, or staff, a much better person for the experience.

Don't forget your College and do come back to visit. Most of all, keep our spirit alive.

Sincerely yours,

W. Robert Jenkins
Dean

RUTGERS
OF NEW JERSEY

Dear Class of 1983:

As your student years at Livingston College come to a close, I would like to extend my congratulations on your graduation and wish you happiness and success in your lives ahead.

Although I have only been here a short time as the Dean of Students, I have come to recognize the true spirit and mission of Livingston College through the eyes of its students, especially the Class of 1983. Each of you has brought to Livingston those qualities that make you unique. It is my hope that the College has helped in the growth of those aspects of your individual spirit and given you new ones to make your future life productive and happy.

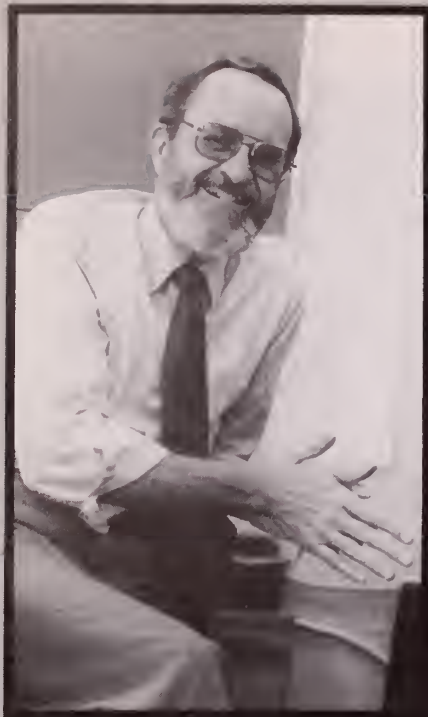

While it will be difficult for those of us who remain behind to let you leave, we hopefully are sending you into a bright and rewarding future full of the excitement of life itself. So, even though you will be physically separated from us, your spirits and energies will always be a part of our special brand of college life.

My one wish for all of you as you graduate is that life will give you all that is good and that you will share it twice over.

Sincerely,

... Be what you want to be
An oak, a blossom, a dry leaf in the wind or the wind blowing the dry leaf; or both.
Be a gong or three gongs in one: a gong of silence:
A gong of clamor crying hellsbells to the satisfied:
A gong of smooth songs saying yes and welcome ...

... Be ice: be fire
Be hard and take the smoothing of brass for your own.
Be sensitized with winter quicksilver below zero.
Be tongs and handles: find breathing tokens
See where several good dreams are worth dying for.

-excerpts from "Breathing Tokens", a poem by Carl Sandburg

SPECIAL EVENTS

STEPPING OUT . . .

is a tradition for Livingston-based fraternities. Pictured here: Frats performing to capacity crowds in late 1982.

HOMECOMING '82

Rutgers Homecoming Queen contestants nervously await the judges' final decision.

HALLOWEEN '82

All kinds of weirdos invaded the Great Hall in late October for Livingston's annual Halloween get-together. Some came for the costume contest, like "stilt man" (above) and Kennington Wall (right). Some came for the music of "Blaze" (above right). Others came for the beer (directly above). Whatever the reason, all of the partiers agreed that it was a memorable evening.

HOLIDAY CELEBRATION . . . LIVINGSTON STYLE!

Of course, the '82 holiday season was welcomed with fanfare: the choir sang, the dancers danced and passersby trimmed the tree with goodies

SPRING WEEKEND

If ever there was a time to simply let loose, forget pressures and go a little crazy it's during Spring Weekend. For four days and nights (more for some), we partied, listened, danced, drank, ate, and, in general, had a great time

Robin Sulzman admits that it was a long - and often dangerous - journey from the beer trucks.

The Jazz Society jams near the Plaza.

"I'll have a balloon with just a little bit of gravy, thanks."

By Sunday afternoon, it was difficult to continue standing, so we sat.

Happiness is a (relatively) short beer line.

Medium staffers, like postmen, work throughout festivities.

Dave Graney ('82) managed to catch some rays.

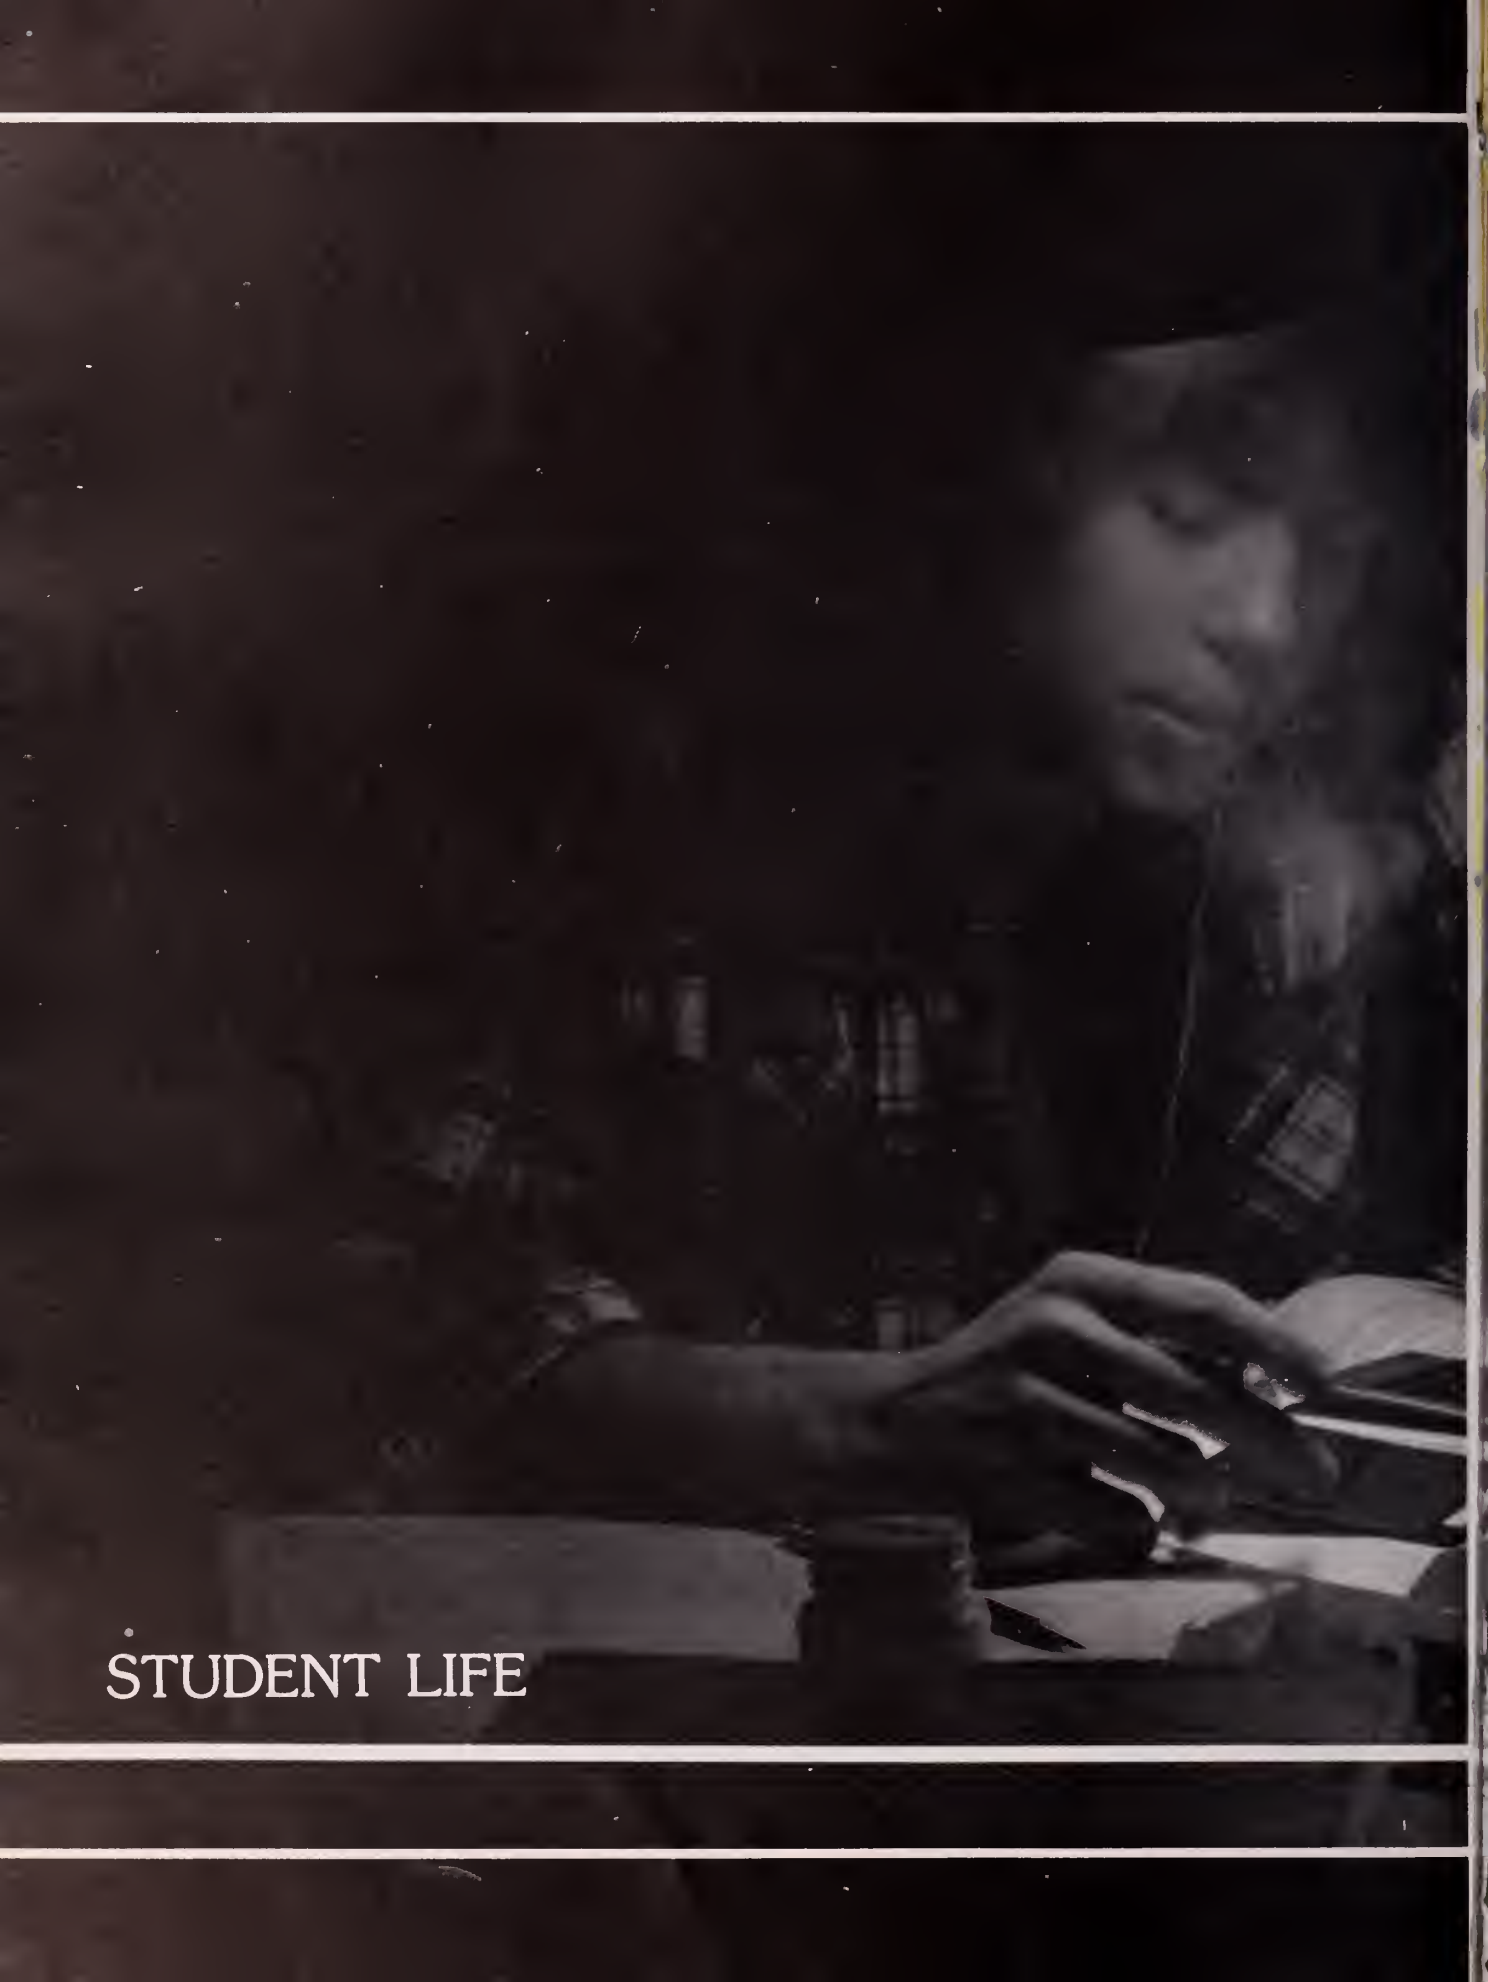

In '82, our weekend "guests" included Timberwolf, the Deed, the Punsters, the Scarlet Stage Band, Shake and the Exceptions. In '81, they were Mitch Ryder, Carlos Garnet, Cloverhill, Hot Romance (and more). Unfortunately, Spring Weekend always ends too soon. Then, we look forward to finals.

Capacity crowds filled the Great Hall for a Saturday night bash.

STUDENT LIFE

T'AI-CHI T'A

... a symbol of harmony and balance ... of a union between opposing forces, representing the dynamic character of Yin and Yang

... in many ways, this ancient oriental character reflects the ideals of Livingston College, of its people and their lives ...

... here, despite our differences, we live in unity.

THE PAUL ROBESON SCHOLARS

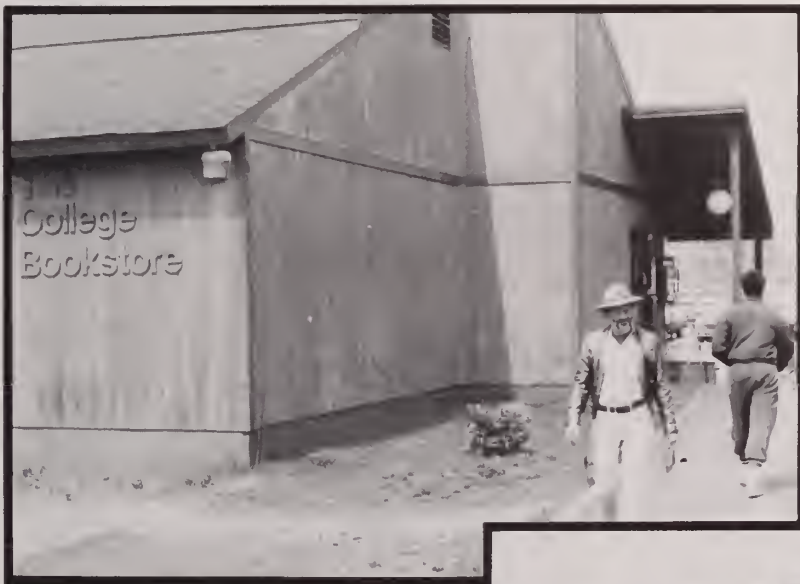

Paul Robeson serves as an incentive to all and encourages us to strive and reach our fullest potential. The Robeson Scholars project honors the ideals of this man. The following students are part of this project and have completed a year of research in a variety of topics:

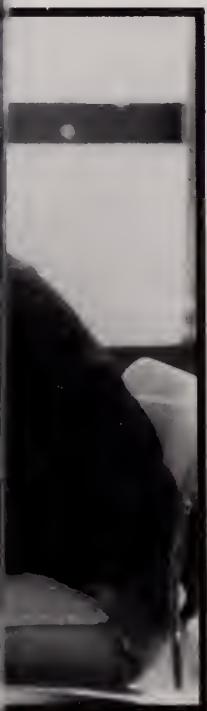

Frank Fryer
Donna Geswaldo
Briganle Serron Hill
Barbara L. Koslow
David B. Masters

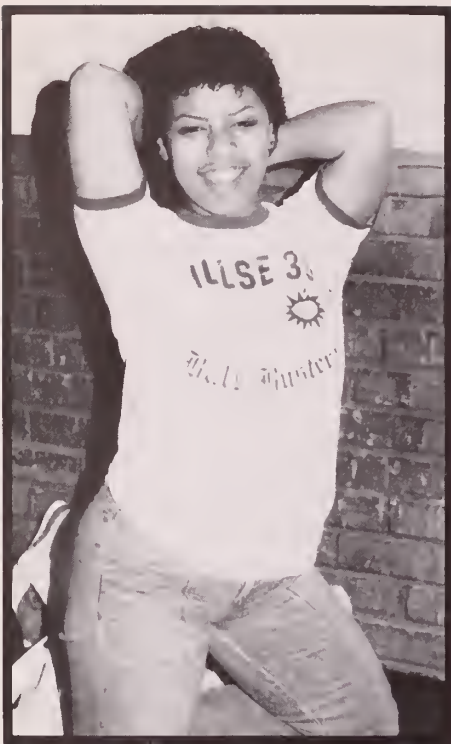

Ivan Page
Patricia H. Perrine
Virginia H. Spatz
Brian Victor
Beverly Dunston-Advisor

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC

Thanks to the efforts of campus organizations, a variety of local, national and international talent performed at Livingston throughout the past four years, including GROVER KEMBLE & ZAZUZAZ, SOUTHSIDE JOHNNY, HOT ROMANCE, PETER GABRIEL and JERRY GARCIA. Pictured here: WAYS & MEANS, LIAR, THE DEED, and participants in L.C.'s Thursday Talent Night.

THE SPORTING LIFE

Contrary to popular belief, athletic events at the "Rock" aren't strictly limited to pub activities. Intramurals and intermurals (women's basketball, softball and men's baseball) remained popular and challenging pastimes for many. In addition, impromptu games of frisbee and soccer are common sights on campus and skateboarders and tennis buffs appear regularly during the warmer months. Though the death of our football "Panthers" was saddening, athletics, in a variety of forms, are alive and well at Livingston.
